STATE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Meeting of Board - Description of the Insti tution and Character of its Work.

Cannot Obtain Divorce from Insane Spouse-Probate Matters-Funeral of Mrs. Nancy N. Tracy.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the state industrial school was held last evening. Chairman A. T. Wrght presided. The other members of the board, N. C. Flygare and Richard Hume were present. Superintendent Allison's monthly report for February was received and read, showing the general conditions of the school to be in a good shape. There were seven boys committed to the gool during the month. Miss Crawford was permanently employed as teacher in the girls' ward, over which she is to have charge. The superin-tendent also reported that during the month 40 pounds of butter had been made, and about 60 dozen eggs obtain-and about to down eggs obtained from the hennery.

A communication was received from George B. Gross, of Los Angeles, asking for the parole of his son, George Gross. The request was granted on recommendation of Superintendent Al-Miss Mary Birmingham was paroled on the application of her paents. Charles Floyd made applica-Anderson, which request was refused, as the young lady had been paroled once but on account of improper conduct was again returned.

A communication was received from Mrs. L. W. DeBolt, of Chillicothe, Mo., asking for a position as instructor in Gustavus A. Horn was employed by board to instruct and drill the students in military tactics or physical pare a new register and get prices on Adjournment was taken for Before the meeting of the board the "News" representative was taken through the schoool buildings and shown the methods in which the school is conducted, and the excellent training which the inmates are given; and it would be a great benefit if the peo-ple of the state would visit the institu-on and see what a praiseworthy work s being done in the same. The school is not like a prison, as many people may have been led to believe, but a training school where boys and girls are taught book learning; different kinds of trades, and are made men and women that when released he school can earr ing and will be creditable citizens. boys and girls are kept separate and are never permitted to mingle with each other except on Sunday after-noons when Sunday school is held for one hour, then they are associated to gether in the opening and closing ex-ercises. The moral education of the inmates is not forgotten by any means.

The jast legislature copropriated $3,500 for a girls' dormitory, which has been built about a half block from the main building. There are twelve girls in this department under the direction of Miss Crawford. There are 23 girls in all in the school; and eleven of them are kept at the main building under Miss Bilby's supervision. The girls are taught cooking, all kinds incy and plain sewing, mending, ral housework, etc. Three new general housework, etc. Three new knitting machines have been recently placed in the building and the girls are knitting and manufacture, un-

The "News" is delivered by carriers in the same number of hours each dear the same nu ments are kept in perfect order and cleanliness. They are also given a scholastic education, spending the same number of hours each day in the school room as if they were attending the public schools, and Mrs. Stone, a very compatent in attention in phases of the petent instructor, is in charge of the educational work. The boys are under the direction of Thomas Meyers and Mr. Peterson dur-ing the day, and William Reast is night ing the day, and William Reast is night watchman. They are taught different trades. There are at present twelve boys learning the shoemaking trade, Peter Hanson having charge of that department. They make and repair the shoes for all the inmates and some to sell. The carpenter shop is under the supervision of Thomas Meyers, who is teaching the boys the carpenter trade; they did the greater part of the carpenthey did the greater part of the carpenter work on the new girls' dormitory. Recently a blacksmith shop was started at the school, there are now eight of the boys learning the blacksmith trade under Jacob Peterson. In each of the departments they show excellent samples of their work, which is very commendable. The boys also during the summer raise all kinds of farm and garden products, fruits, etc.

The boys attend school from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. during the winter months and are taught the various branches of education, by Joseph B. Wallace, a very able teacher.

The grounds recently purchased by The grounds recently purchased by the state for the institution situated directly in front of the main building are being graded by the students, which work when completed, will very much beautify the surroundings. The entire grounds cover 40 acres, about 10 acres of which is laid out in a fine or-chard, which produces fruit enough for the use of the school and considerable

The school was commenced in 1889 and since that time 321 persons have been committed to the institution, of which number 261 were boys and 60 girls. There are at present in the school, 64 inmates, 41 boys and 23 girls. They have been committed from the following counties: Salt Lake, 36; Weber, 7; Utah, 8; Cache, 4; Davis, 2; Summit, 3; Boxelder, 3.

Superintendent Allison and his worthy wife are working zealousy for the welfare of every boy and girl placed under their care and are as a father and mother to the inmates. They are the mother to the inmates. They are the right people in the right place. The board of trustees are putting forth every effort to make the institution one of the most creditable in the state, and the money expended for the Industrial chool, by the state, could not be put o better advantage than it is in educating the incorrigible youths of the

CANNOT OBTAIN DIVORCE.

The hearing in the case of Charles M. Beason against A. F. Richey as guar-dian of Maryetta Beason, insane. The suit is brought by the plaintiff to secure a divorce from his wife, Maryetta Beason, who for the past 10 years, has been an inmate of the state asylum at Provo. The plaintiff alleged that his wife was insane at the time he married her and endeavored to show by testimony introduced that these allegations were true, and that he was entitled to a divorce on those grounds. The defense proved by witnesses introduced that Mrs. Beason was not insane at the time of the marriage, and that she was in a sane state of mind and knew the solemnity of the mar-riage covenant when she and the plaintiff entered into bonds of matrimony, and that she become insane about 10 and that she become insane about 10 years after the marriage. Judge Rolapp heard the testimony and after being fully advised in the premises denied.

The Easter vacation was fixed from March 28 to April 7.

The regular payrolls were ordered fully advised in the premises, denied he granting of a divorce to the plain-

Middleton was the first speaker, who read a short biographay of the deceased, referring to her accepting the latter-day Saints' faith in the early days, of her association with the Prophet Joseph Smith, and the early Saints, and her usefulness in Utah. Pa-triarch George W. Larkin, Sr., spoke of the beautiful God-fearing life of the eceased, and the glories of the resurrection, giving much comfort to the be reaved family. Counselor Madsen made a few closing remarks. Miss Blair sang very sweetly between the speakers, "O my Father," and "Softly and tender-

CARPENTERS' UNION. A meeting of the Carpenters' union of Ogden was held last evening at Thomas' hall. The main topic of discussion was the adoption of a plan whereby the carpenters of the city will work less hours, and receive better pay. The union decided to work eight hours per day and to receive $3.00 per day compensation. In the past the carpenters have been working from eight to ten hours per day and receiving from $2.00 to $3.50 per day. The contractors and builders have been notified of the decision arrived at by the union, which is to go into effect after The union has also decided not to take part in the Ogden-Lucin cut-off parade in a body.

MOUNT PLEASANT. DEMISE OF DAVID CANDLAND. Faithful Veteran and Pioneer Passes

Away in Eighty-Third Year. Special Correspondence. Mt. Pleasant, Utah, March Brother David Candland is dead. Such was the news that came so unexpectedly yesterday. One by one these old veterans and early pioneers are passing to the "Great Beyond," and gradually all those early members of the

who personally knew the Prophet Joseph, are summoned to the other shore. Their voices are hushed forever, but their testimony still remains as a legacy to the people.

David Candland was born at Highpayld Candiand was born at Alga-gate, Middlesex, England, Oct. 15, 1819. In his early youth he listened to the preaching of Elder Orson Hyde and others, and became convinced of the truthfulness of the Gospel, and was baptized in 1811. In 1842 he was ordained a Seventy, and in 1843 he went to England on his first mission. He was the first to inaugurate the tract system by publishing the "Fireside Visitor." Returning to the United States, he was again sent, in 1861, on a mission to the Eastern States and Nova Scotia, returning home the next year. Other missions were performed by him, in various parts of the country, which showed his early zeal and faithfulness in the work of God. During his sofourn in Nauvoo, he taught school, and acted in the capacity of clerk for leading members of the Church, and at one time was private secretary to the late President Young. At the solicitation of President Young he performed meritorlous labor in his purchases of military supplies when he was sent to Fort Hall for that purpose. During the early settlement of the Territory of Utah, he acted as staff officer to Maj. Gen. J. D. Grant, secretary to Hosea Stout, pay-master to the Nauvoo Legion. He also which would give satisfaction to all; a laxative which physicians could sanction and one friend recommend to another; so that today its sales probably exceed all other laxatives combined. In some places considerable quantities of old-time catharties and modern imitations are still sold, but with the general diffusion of knowledge, as to the best medicinal agents, Syrap of Figs has come into general use with the well-informed, because it is a remedy of known value and ever beneficial action. The quality of Syrup of Figs is due not only to the excellent combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants, known to act most beneficially on the system, with agreeable and refreshing aromatic liquids, but also to the orginal method of manufacture. In order to get the genuine and its beneficial effects one should always note the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co.- printed on the front of every package.
